

Thank you for your interest in Blueprint 181!

Dear neighbor,

As we prepare to send students off to their spring break adventures, we wanted to let you know that a short informational video giving an overview of the Blueprint 181 proposal that is before voters, now until election day on April 10, has been posted to the district's social media accounts. Check it out below!

We want everyone to get information about the referendum and we need your help to make this video go viral across our community. We would so appreciate if you would like, comment and share the video through your social media networks. Here's where you can find it:
